VOL. XXIII | RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1887. | NO. 83

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

"Read me for my cause, and be patient that ye may read."—Shakespeare.

The Greatest Study of Mankind is Man.

The greatest study of mankind is man,
And who er'e his wondrous frame doth scan,
Ponder and devise to cure an ill,
Whether by device, fruit or pill,
An equal benefactor is he; and we haste,
The inventor of a cathar of delicious taste,
To do him honor.
Who remembers not how the distressed mother,
Her child's entreaties tries to smother,
That she insist not the horrid dose be taken,
The remembrance e'en now does nauses awaken,
And fond father,
To be witness of his child's torture, would rather
Pay high price,
If money could purchase cathartic nice.
We have it now! and great De Prati's name,
Appears upon the scroll of Esculapian fame;
For after long study what would suit,
Has hit upon delicious fruit
To cure our ills.
Away at once with draughts and pills;
For whether it be indigestion, liver complaint or constipation,
Or any disease to which flesh is heir,
He here with pride does boldly declare,
And on the assertion will wager big,
That it can be cured by a Hamburg Fig.

Saved His Life.

D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with phthisic, also diabetes; the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from the first bottle, and after taking six bottles, was entirely cured, and had gained in flesh 18 pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at 50 cents a bottle by S. J. Hodgkinson & Co

C. C. CHASE'S ENTERPRISE.

A Magnificent Saloon Happily Described—Armory Hall—Pleasant Bar Tenders—Billiards, Pool, Paintings—Airy, Light Room, Etc.

The more I become acquainted through investigation with the real standing of the business men of Reno the more I am astonished at the amount of unencumbered wealth they represent in their various establishments. I am not confined to any particular branch either, as I find this rule applies to all, and as I intend before completing the laborious task of informing the world what a substantial city Reno is destined to be, I have no doubts whatever but that success will crown my efforts. This morning I called at the northeast corner of Virginia and Second streets, where there is one of the most substantial two-story brick buildings in the town. Its dimensions are 90x50 feet, with balcony in front and entrances from each end and the side. The corner is occupied by

MR. C. C. CHASE

As a saloon, while next door is the handsome dry goods store of Mr. Sol Levy. The saloon referred to is one of, if not the largest in Reno, while in the second story is Armory Hall. This hall is 90x50 feet, well supplied with air and light and in every way excellently adapted for the use of society parties, balls, festivals, etc. There are two large dressing rooms in it, over which is a gallery that accommodates the orchestra and furnishes seating room for fully 200 people. Ease and comfort are given on any public occasion to at least 500 people within its walls, and to guard against fire there are three modes of exit provided. The first is a broad stairway leading up from Virginia street and a double door exit right overhead, which leads out to the balcony, and in the rear heavy double doors can be swung on their hinges in a second, so that the hall can be emptied in less than two minutes. It is occupied by the Reno Guard at present, but is rented almost nightly to all parties of respectability, such as those who have in charge church festivals, etc. Mrs. Amos Alt here teaches the terpsichorean art to the youth of Reno. The whole building presents a very imposing appearance and was sold a week ago to an aunt of that enterprising young merchant from Virginia City, Mr. Frank Golden, for $21,000. This purchase does not in any manner interfere with Mr. Chase's saloon, which is called the Bon Ton of Reno. Its proprietor is an old '49er, and has hosts of friends all over the coast. The ample space, the great height of the ceiling and the general appearance of this

MAMMOTH RESORT

Impresses one very favorably with the proprietor on first entrance. In the day time it is cool and well ventilated, besides enjoying all the light needed. There are three handsomely furnished card rooms in it, which are largely patronized by the gambling fraternity from all sections of the country. No bums or adventurers are tolerated, and minors are never allowed any liquors over the bar. In fact, the better class of our citizens can be found here in the evening, whiling away a few pleasant hours, and during the day they quench their thirst at the

MAGNIFICENT BAR.

This bar is one of the most beautiful in the State. The counter is about 25 feet in length, and stands five feet high. It is a beauty in itself and attracts the attention of strangers immediately. To the west of it is a large ice chest, in which beer, wine and rare liquors are kept cool all the year round. The top of it is piled to the ceiling with sample bottles of all the liquids a bon vivant could wish for. A mirror 8x6 feet adorns the same, on either side of which are two very costly oil paintings representing mountain scenery, lakes and rivers in the Far West, and the tall pines of the Sierras. Right above all stands out in gold letters the well-known name of the proprietor, C. C. Chase, which is suspended from the base of a large clock, and looks very pretty indeed. On the upper corners of the mirror two mammoth and highly polished specimens of Elk horns adorn the scene. Underneath, a bronze equestrian statue stands out in bold relief, while the broad shelf on which all these ornaments rest is decorated with glass kegs of varigated colors, choice selections in the way of vases, flowers, queer shaped bottles, etc. The center piece on the handsome bar is of solid silver. Behind the bar Mr. S. A. Herring, one of the best gin slingers in the city, cheerily awaits the orders of customers. He is assisted by Mr. Dusan Churich, and the pioneer practitioner, Mr. O. C. Lovett, familiarly known as "Smoky"." Mr. Amos Alt attends to the tastes of the gentlemen of the green cloth in his own winsome manner. About midway in the room is a

POOL AND BILLIARD TABLE,

The balls upon the surface of which are kept rolling for the greater part of sixteen hours daily. There is one electric light on the outside of the building. These and three others and two patent gas lamps illuminate the spacious room at night. A fine marble-topped wash-stand is located in a cove right next the entrance on Second street, which consists of double doors, in them being encased two of the loveliest sheets of blue glass that can be seen anywhere. The ceiling with center pieces, as well as the four walls, are frescoed beautifully and the wainscotting of narrow panels highly varnished, render the view extremely interesting. In each of

THE CARD ROOMS

And on the four sides of the walls, paintings, crayons and the most select productions of the photographers' art lend enchantment to the scene. Richly framed and costly representations of castles on the Rhine, scenes from the days of Queen Elizabeth and all prominent features in our own wonderland, relieve the eye and afford pleasurable pastime to the connoisseur. A large crayon of General Grant, as well as four others of the bonanza kings, Messrs. Mackay, Fair, Flood and O'Brien, bespeak for themselves the admiral taste of the proprietor. Photos of riflemen, actors and actresses are alike distributed. A mammoth heating stove surrounded by iron bars does good service in Winter time for many a shivering Renoite. Rows of shining chairs are placed on both sides for the accommodation of guests, particularly in the neighborhood of the billiard department. There is a cool and commodious cellar in which is kept

A PLENTIFUL SUPPLY OF VIANDS

From every country. Large iron doors protect this fine structure at night, and with the fire-proof character of the building it is evident it was built to remain permanently. The floors of this popular establishment are ever kept as clean and neat as a new pin, and on account of the coolness of the atmosphere which pervades it, is often frequented this hot weather by Reno's most prominent citizens. Magazines, periodicals and all the leading daily and weekly newspapers can be found on four finely upholstered round tables all the year round. A highly ornamented American automaton weighing machine amuses the young gentry as they deposit their nickles to learn their weight, and to cap the climax in this brief description I must not forget to state that the females man visits it with his Mexican mixtures every night to heat the coppers of the festive clerk or rouse the night watchmen from their peaceful slumbers.

Asthma and phthisic are instantly relieved by taking a few doses of Fryer's Abietene Cough Balsam. (It contains no opium.) Price, 75 cents. Sold by W. Pinniger, Reno, Nevada. All genuine Abietene preparations bear the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer.

The reason Why Acker's Blood Elixir is warranted, is because it is the best Blood Preparation known. It will positively cure all Blood Diseases, purifies the whole system, and thoroughly builds up the constitution. Remember, we guarantee it.

FATAL

Do you know that a pain in the left shoulder or arm is a sign of heart disease? It is; and that disease may have progressed far towards a fatal termination without exciting suspicion. Take DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY at once.

Shortness of Breath, Dizziness, faintness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, lassitude, pain in the left shoulder or arm, denote the presence of heart disease, and call for the immediate use of Dr. Flint's HEART REMEDY.

Dropsy. Dr. Flint's HEART REMEDY rapidly removes the effusion in cases of Dropsy, which is due in most cases to some disease of the heart or general circulation.

HAMBURG FIGS.

Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure for the reason that no one likes to take the medicine that is usually prescribed. Hamburg Figs were prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found effective as well as pleasant to the taste of women and children. 25 cents.

FRIDAY.....JULY 8, 1887

Attorney-General Garland has been appealed to for instructions in a rather peculiar case that arises out of our laws restricting Chinese migration. On Wednesday last the revenue cutter Wolcott arrived at the Seattle (W. T.) port, having on board Custom Agent H. F. Beecher in charge of two white men and nine Chinamen, captured while crossing into the United States from Victoria. United States Marshal Hamilton was notified, and he took charge of the prisoners and escorted them to the District Court room, where court was called, and the preliminary hearing was had before Chief Justice Jones. H. F. Beecher was the first witness called and testified substantially as follows:

I left Port Townsend on the cutter about 8 o'clock and started down the Sound on official business, and about 10 o'clock, when near Smith's Island, discovered a ship or fishing smack becalmed. She was about one-half mile from Smith's Island lighthouse, and, not liking her appearance, bore down upon her and soon ran alongside. When first discovered with the glass three men appeared on deck, and, as we neared them, but two could be seen. We asked the man who appeared to be in command what he had on board and he answered promptly "Chinamen." We boarded the vessel and found nine Chinese stowed away below deck. We brought the sloop to Port Townsend and came here with the prisoners this morning.

What to do with the Chinamen is a conundrum. They cannot be returned to Victoria without the payment of a per capita tax of $50 and there is no warrant for turning them loose on the soil of the United States.

It looks as if the Panama Canal enterprise was doomed. While not more than one-fifth of the work has been done, the company has already expended double the original estimate of its cost, and the money on hand will not last more than four or five months longer. It is now reported that the builders of the canal have to contend not only with a sliding mountain on one side of the cut in the Culebra Division, but also with a rising bed in other parts of the line. The Engineering News has been informed that in the lower parts of the route the bottom of the ditch is continually forced upward by the weight of the excavated material deposited on each side, so that in some places "it requires a very healthy and hard working dredge to hold its own."

Roscoe Conkling is not inclined to talk much about politics, but hopes that in the end all will come out well. "One of the greatest proofs of the divinity and authenticity of the Christain religion is its survival of the hypocrisy within and the attacks upon its faith from without. So the strongest surety that our Government will endure, is that no matter whether an Administration makes grievous blunders, as we sometimes think, all these losses are made up of and disappear in the grand avalanche of prosperity."

The Carson Tribune continues to boast of the $1,000 given by the citizens of that town to the widows and orphans of the late disaster in Virginia City. It looks now as though the gift was made for show and not out of a true spirit of charity. At least, one is led to that conclusion by the Tribune's continual boasting.

Realizing that the President made a donkey of himself when he made the order for the return of the rebel flags, Democratic politicians and country editors are trying to ease his fall by accusing such staunch patriots as Governor Foraker, of Ohio, of waving the ensanguined under garment.

The President put his foot into it again when he wrote that silly letter to the Mayor of St. Louis. He needs just about such a man as [illegible]niel Manning constantly at his [illegible] to keep him from making a [illegible]mself.

A Home Rule Advocate.

ST. PAUL, July 8.

Two hundred Irish American and other citizens last night sat down to a banquet tendered to the Earl of Aberdeen, late Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, now on his way East from the Pacific Coast. In his address of welcome, Bishop Ireland described the guest as the first Englishman who ruled Ireland for the Irish, and declared that the name of Gladstone will take its place with that of O'Connell and Parnell. The Earl replying, declared that such a demonstration had a peculiar significance at the present juncture in promoting the success of the cause of Home Rule. We must recognize the fact that the speedy passage of Home Rule depends on the votes of British electors. I do not speak of whether Home Rule is coming, but when, and it will be when the British public disabused its misapprehensions as to the aspirations of the advocates of Home Rule.

The Manhattan Transaction.

NEW YORK, July 8.

The following letter explains itself:

To the Agent of the Associated Press:

—Dear Sir:—So many conflicting reports have been circulated in regard to the late sale of the Manhattan railway stock, I think it proper to give through you, the facts. Myself and my associates did sell 78,000 shares of the Manhattan stock to Jay Gould unconditionally, at $120 cash per share, and I wish to further state explicitly that Gould has acted throughout the transaction in a perfectly straightforward way, and that the most friendly feeling exists between us. I have no idea of resigning as a Director of the Manhattan Company, and my opinion as to the future development of the property remains unchanged. Yours faithfully C. W. FIELD.

A Terrible Scourge.

WESTERN DISPATCHES

A Sensational Story.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.

The Chronicle this morning prints a series of letters and affidavits found among the effects of the late Abner L. Blake, formerly in the United States Custom's service at Port Townsend, who died under mysterious circumstances at Chicago last May, while on on his way to Washington. The article shows that Blake, who had been removed from the Custom's service, held to the opinion that H. F. Beecher, son of the late Henry Ward Beecher, who holds a responsible position in the Custom's service at Port Townsend, had defrauded the Government, and in one instance had withheld from an informer the amount due him growing out of a large opium seizure. The seizure in question consisted of fourteen barrels of opium which was found hidden in an Alaskan bay, having been placed there by the steamer Idaho. The seized opium was sold by the Government for $32,000, of which the informer, G. M. Rouse, was to have received about $16,000. In the papers of Blake it is shown that a Chinaman named Ah Cooy, of Victoria was substituted as a dummy informer and given a small sum of money. These and other serious charges of irregularities were made by Blake to the officials at Washington, but no attention being paid to them, Blake started east with them, but was induced to stop at Chicago, and there died in a hospital. In a letter written by Rouse from Chicago, he expresses the belief that Blake there met "Bill" Mintey, formerly employed on the steamer Evangel, run by Beecher, and that he met foul play, resulting in his death, to prevent exposure. All of Blake's papers fell into the Chronicle's hands and it prints them in extenso. Among these are a number of affidavits charging that Beecher paid out various amounts for expenses and for government supplies, in each instance collecting more from the government than he paid out.

Dumped into the Sewers.

The New York World says: Five thousand gallons of the soakings of dried peaches and raisins of doubtful record and other superannuated vegetable substances, have just been diverted by the health authorities of this city from a number of human stomachs and doomed, it is to be hoped, to the sewers. The intent was to color and flavor the stuff variously to represent different kinds of wine and palm it off on the community as such. But although these 5,000 gallons may miss their mark they form but a small installment of the concoction thus manufactured which reaches, for the most part, its intended destination. Salicylic acid is declared, upon competent medical authority, to be injurious to health, and its use, as Health Officer Dr. Edson states, is prohibited in France.

The seizure spoken of shows that something is done, but it is so little, comparatively speaking, that the shelves of the cheap groggeries and many of the more pretentious ones are loaded with the miserable liquid all over the country.

A LIVE PAPER.

How the Editor of the Pioche "Record" Dishes up Sprightly Items When There are no Happenings to Mention.

Publishing a live newspaper in a dull mining camp is up-hill work, but if there ever was an editor in Nevada equal to the task he is certainly Harry Turner, of the Pioche Record. It is evident that Harry can keep a stiff upper lip under the most trying circumstances. Pioche is to-day scarcely a shadow of its former self. The Record comes to us every week, containing accounts of what happenings there are in that locality worthy of note, and when there are not many such, the local columns are filled up with sprightly items like the following, which we clip from the issue of the 2d instant:

A down-town saloon had just been plastered and the lime washings swept out on the sidewalk, when an individual, so full of "sour-mash" that he had to hold his jaw elevated to keep the liquor from slopping out, seeing the lime-mud on the pavement, thus soliloquized: "D——est fools in this country I ever seed (hic;) whitewashing the pavements (hic) instead of the ceiling (hic.) No wonder (hic) times are dull."

The lazy man is nearly always good-natured. He never flies into a passion. He might crawl into one, if that were possible, but the idea of flying into anything is preposterous. They are not scarce in Pioche.

The lizard and snake crops this season are abundant on the mountains. When a person becomes fatigued climbing hills, he looks before he sits down, for fear of anchoring on one of these reptiles.

These hot days make a fellow feel like joining the church of Latter-day Saints and going down to Panaca and have Bishop Lee douse him in the ducking hole.

Dull times, hard times, and in fact all kinds of times, except flush times, prevail throughout this locality.

The young birds are becoming numerous out in the brush. Let the June bugs hunt their holes.

The Mormons of Zion are now feeding the ungodly of this place on worms, done up in June apples.

THE PIONEER EMPORIUM.

M. Nathan's Establishment—Reno's Oldest Clothing Merchant—Reward of Industry.

Business houses are springing up around us with such rapidity that it is certainly gratifying that the confidence thus exhibited is shared in by all the old merchants of Reno as well. In every mining camp since the days of '49 one of the first kind of business enterprises that suddenly blossoms forth is that of the clothing store. Before the Virginia and Truckee railroad was completed, Reno had her merchants, many of whom followed this line of commerce. Among them many made money, and as many more went out into the broader and more speculative field of mining. To-day there is a gentleman doing business on Virginia street in

CLOTHING AND GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS

That has been in our midst since 1869. I refer to Mr. M. Nathan. There is not a more jovial or wholesouled merchant in Reno than he. He is popularly called "Nathan the clothier," and is known from one end of the State to the other, while he recalls with interesting reminiscences the days of the "big teams" he loaded with goods for Oregon and the Territories. He is more confident now than he ever was in Reno's future, although he says that it always had, in his judgment, bright prospects. In consequence, he carries a very large stock of goods in order to meet the demands of the people of the interior, many of whom send in orders for goods all the way from California, Utah and Oregon. He has recently laid in a heavy supply of trunks, valises, hats, caps, shoes, boots, jewelry, and every variety of notions found in a well regulated emporium. He can safely boast that he is prepared to fill any order, no matter how large or small it is. Mr. L. J. Cohn, his gentlemanly and obliging clerk, is always on hand to exhibit to purchasers any and all styles of coats, pants, vests, shirts, neckties and everything appertaining to a gentleman's wearing apparel.

THE PRICES

At this establishment are always reasonable, and the quality of the goods disposed of are the best that the market affords. Mr. Nathan says that from his long experience, and he has been on the coast since 1862, that he always found it more profitable to himself and satisfactory to his customers to carry none but the best goods and sell them at fixed prices. "The result of this rule," he says, "has been that I win patrons; that, when they once know they have been treated honestly and squarely, never go elsewhere to purchase goods that I have on hand." Besides, he believes in the potentiality of printers' ink and says that a liberal use of it in advertising legitimate goods always brings good returns. The building he occupies is a large one-story brick, and its dimensions are so great that he is determined to keep constantly on hand such a stock and variety of gentlemen's wear that he can fill any order almost instantly. A splendid silver-mounted show-case adorns the main counter, and in it can be seen some very fine specimens of jewelry, diamonds, pocket knives, silk and embroidered handkerchiefs, artistic scarf-pins and all other knick-knacks required to complete the attire of tasty and well-dressed gentlemen. His

SHOW-WINDOW

Is another attractive feature, from both the artistic arrangement of its contents and the business solidity it represents. Mr. Nathan lives in a neat, private house with his wife and three children, and his dwelling is seldom without some visiting friends, while no public charity or business enterprise is undertaken by his fellow citizens, but he identifies himself with it by his voice, presence and money. Such merchants deserve the support of any community and that Mr. Nathan enjoys it, a visit to his popular emporium will convince the most casual observer. NAHOM.

Bound for the East.

Mr. George Hazleton, the Washington correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle, passed through on his way east this morning to visit his parents and to do a little prognosticating on the Presidential battle of 1888. He was pronounced, while the writer was in Washington as a correspondent, as being next to the representative of the New Orleans Picayune, who is the ablest and most concise telegraphic ink slinger at the National Capital. Mr. Hazleton has a poor idea of Cleveland, and less for his chances of re-election. He says either Blaine or Allison will beat him, and that his St. Louis letter was the hair that broke the camel's back.

PYRAMID.

How the Fourth was Celebrated There.

PYRAMID, Nev., July 7.

Editor Gazette:—As I happened to be traveling through Pyramid I thought I would send you a few lines to let you know how the Fourth of July was celebrated here. The day opened clear and bright and everything had the appearance of a holiday. Flags waved in all directions. The exercises were reserved till evening so as to give the neighbors at a distance a chance of attending. Mr. Mullin made a few appropriate remarks. This was followed by a song by Miss Jessie Hearon, which was greatly applaued. After this we were favored with a reading by Mr. Mullin, and "The Star Spangled Banner," by Mrs. H. C. Toombs and Mrs. J. W. Whitehead, assisted by a male quartette. This was followed by Miss Maria Clarke, as the reader of the Fourth of July poem, "Liberty's Tree," written by Mrs. J. W. Mullin for the occasion. It was read in loud, clear tones and received great applause. Several other recitations succeeded, and the exercises were closed by the national air, "America," which was sung by all. Then all adjourned to the refreshment room, where cake, ice-cream and lemonade were served. Fireworks and other outdoor amusements were indulged in and were greatly enjoyed by all present. Altogether, Pyramid's celebration was a decided success. There were no accidents to mar the pleasures of the day. All returned home in the "wee small hours" well pleased.

TO THE PUBLIC:

Never before in the history of the Coast has there been acquired in such a short space of time such a wonderful reputation and so great a success in the medical profession as that of DR. PRENTICE. Suffering humanity, read the following, and take advantage and consult Dr. Prentice, as he positively will leave for Europe on July 15th.

AN OPEN LETTER.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., June 3, 1887.

Dr. Prentice, 626 Sutter street, San Francisco—My Dear Doctor:—Please allow me to congratulate you (as well as myself) on the success of your treatment in my case. As I told you when we first met two months ago, I had suffered untold agony for twenty-one years with the piles, often being unable to perform any manual labor for weeks at a time, being compelled to resort to morphine to deaden the pain. Life seemed a burden and hardly worth living, the constant pain and irritation driving me nearly crazy. After trying many remedies without any permanent relief, I happened to see one of your advertisements and concluded to try once more, and thank the good Lord and Dr. Prentice, I am now once more a well man, and again life seems worth living. I should be glad if some of my suffering friends of Norwalk, Florida, and Scowhegan, Maine, could be treated by you. Yours, with gratitude,

ROBERT WILLIAMS.

P. S.—At present I can be found at Spaulding's Saw Works, 17 and 19 Fremont street, S. F.

DEAFNESS.

Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe.

The State of Nevada sends to B. F. Small greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Theodore Winters as plaintiff, in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons—exclusive of the day of service—if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain an order and decree of sale against you of certain property by you pledged to secure the payment of two hundred and fifty dollars, together with interest thereon at the rate of sixteen dollars per month, for such time as you may retain possession of said money, said principal sum and interest thereon aggregates fifteen hundred and fourteen dollars at the date hereof, also to foreclose your equity of redemption in and to said property, and for other relief. Said demand is evidenced by a written promise to pay said principal sum and interest thereon accrued and to accrue by you executed November 9th, 1880, to one M. Friedman, who, for value, sold and assigned said written demand and evidence of debt to the plaintiff, who also delivered to plaintiff said property by you pledged, and conveyed therein such rights to plaintiff as said Friedman as pledgee had and possessed. In addition to said order and decree plaintiff asks a judgment against you for any remainder that may remain unpaid after the proceeds of the sale of said property have been applied upon said demand. Said property consists of a diamond and opal breast-pin, containing 15 diamonds and ear-rings to match said breast-pin, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the clerk of said court, at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply for the relief demanded.

{seal} In testimony whereof, I, T. V. Julien, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, this 24th day of June, A. D. 1887.

T. V. JULIEN,
Clerk of the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe county.
